Forms W-4

- If employees claim to be exempt from withholding, they must submit a new Form W-4 to their employer by February 15, 2024. Please notify your payroll contact of any changes to your employees' federal exemptions or update your employee information if you input your own payroll.
- The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) may request copies of selected employee Forms W-4 if the agency suspects an under-withholding problem. Follow the instructions on the IRS letter if this occurs.

Social Security Cards

Employers are permitted to ask for and copy employee Social Security cards to ensure that the correct number and name are included on Form W-2. Employers may be assessed penalties if an employee's name and Social Security Number are not reported on Form W-2 as they appear on their Social Security card.

2024 Out of Business Employers

The federal government requires employers who go out of business to provide Forms W-2 to employees and file federal Forms W-2 information according to the following schedule:

Out of Business Quarter	Forms 941 Due to IRS	Forms W-2 Information Due to Employees	Forms W-2/W-3 Due to SSA
1	April 30, 2024	April 30, 2024	May 31, 2024
2	July 31, 2024	July 31, 2024	September 3, 2024
3	October 31, 2024	October 31, 2024	December 2, 2024
4	January 31, 2025	January 31, 2025	February 28, 2025

Employers required to file Form W-2 information electronically will receive an extension for employee copies until October 31, 2023, and for the government copies until December 2, 2024. Paychex can prepare and file the Forms W-2 on your behalf for a fee. Please discuss this with your payroll contact when you report that your company is going out of business.

SUI or FUTA Exempt Employees

If you had employees who were exempt for state unemployment insurance (SUI) or federal unemployment insurance (FUTA) in 2023, determine if they are still exempt for 2024. If not, please notify your payroll service representative, or update your employee information if you input your own payroll.

Note: If you process your own payroll and do not make these changes before your first payroll of the year, please call your payroll service representative before making this update.

Future Tax Changes

This bulletin contains tax changes for 2024 that we know at the time of publication; however, make sure you consult with your CPA or tax consultant to ensure you are aware of all 2024 federal, state, and local tax changes.
